COUNTING STARS
worldwide

Do you want to PLAY SOCCER at the COLLEGE level? We can help you get there!

The Counting Stars Worldwide™ evaluation program doesn't just test your physical abilities, but evaluates you in four different areas so you can find the college that best matches your talent, passions and goals.

Sign up for this inaugural Counting Stars Worldwide event and we will:

- Provide an in-depth, thorough, objective and honest talent evaluation
- Give professional feedback on your strengths and weaknesses, and provide direction on how to improve
- Match your talent evaluation and academic abilities to colleges that are right for your goals

This Counting Stars Worldwide event will include:

- A full day of game play or dance auditions that will highlight your skills
- Breakouts for testing of your technical proficiency
- Physical performance testing using state of the art laser timers
- Athletic mindset assessment and personalized recommended training to compete at the college level
